The Chesapeake Bay Chapter- AACN is based in Baltimore, Maryland and serves critical care nurses both in the city and surrounding counties. As a chapter of the American Association of Critical-Care Nurses (AACN), we welcome nurses who practice critical care skills – both in and out of the physical boundaries of critical care units. The AACN Procedure Manual for High Acuity, Progressive, and Critical Care, 7th Edition, authored by the American Association of Critical-Care Nurses, is the authoritative reference to procedures performed in high acuity, progressive, and critical care settings. Studies have shown the importance of pupillary evaluation in the clinical setting. In a comatose or heavily sedated patient, the pupillary light reflex may be one of the few components of the neurological assessment that can be repeatedly and reliably obtained (26). The SePA Chapter would like to remind each and every one of you to take few moments to help ensure AACN's future direction and cast your vote for the FY2020-22 AACN Board of Directors and FY2020...
