Little could he have known that, with such humble beginnings, this tune would later become the focal musical piece in the most watched PBS series of all time: The Civil War, by Ken Burns. Ultimately, this tune, and this series, would become inextricably and forever linked (so much so that most folks think this to be a Civil War era tune). Most banjo versions I've seen and heard of Ashokan Farewell are too busy with finger rolls dancing around the melody, the simplicity of your version playing mostly the melody is moving. I believe that's what the song is all about. over 240 free banjo tabs by over 100 different artists. covering all genres
