

Download Contracting Officer Representative Cor Deskguide

A contracting officer representative (COR) works for a government agency and serves as business liaison between the agency and private contractors. She monitors contractors' progress in performing tasks, compiles inspection reports and recommends contract terminations or modifications Educational qualifications for ...