Odds and ends from a First Grade classroom and more...including teacher tips, activities, and downloads! I am a librarian for a K-4th grade school. I am going to also try to do a rainforest this year. I have bought nets at a craft store to hang in my reading corner from the ceiling, then I can hang vines, monkeys, and snakes from it. Rainforest Action Network preserves forests, protects the climate and upholds human rights by challenging corporate power and systemic injustice through frontline partnerships and strategic campaigns. The 'Build a Rain forest' Project is a group activity in which students can apply their knowledge of greenhouse effects and the rain forest climate to a small terrarium. Students will create a small 'rain forest' and monitor it over several weeks to watch how heat and water effect the plant growth ...
