68W ARNG MEDICAL READINESS NCO The Army National Guard Medical Readiness

NCO(MRNCO)serves to focus on key aspects related to the medical readiness of the unit and Soldiers. United States Northern Command (USNORTHCOM) is a Unified Combatant Command of the U.S. military tasked with providing military support for non-military authorities in the U.S., and protecting the territory and national interests of the United States within the continental United States, Puerto Rico, Canada, Mexico, The Bahamas, and the air, land and sea approaches to these areas. Battlefield medicine, also called field surgery and later combat casualty care, is the treatment of wounded combatants and non-combatants in or near an area of combat. Civilian medicine has been greatly advanced by procedures that were first developed to treat the wounds inflicted during combat. With the advent of advanced procedures and medical technology, even polytrauma can be survivable in ...Chapter Five: Lessons Learned. This government will learn the lessons of Hurricane Katrina. We are going to review every action and make necessary changes so that we are better prepared for any challenge of nature, or act of evil men, that could threaten our people.
